

14. Jesus is raised from the dead

Luke 24:1-12

Early on Sunday morning, several of the women went to the tomb. They wanted to anoint the body of Jesus.

When they arrived at the tomb, they were surprised. The large stone had been moved. The tomb was open! The women entered the tomb, but the tomb was empty.

Suddenly they saw two men wearing very bright clothes. The women were very afraid. They bowed to the ground. The men said, “Why are you looking for Jesus? He is not here. He has been raised. Remember that he told you he must suffer and die. But he said that three days later he would rise from the dead.” Then the women remembered what Jesus had said.

They went to tell the disciples what they had seen and heard. The disciples did not believe the women. They thought the women were talking nonsense. However, Peter ran to the tomb. He wanted to see what had happened. He looked into the tomb. He only saw the burial cloth, nothing else. He was amazed. Then he went back home.
